

As an active citizen, it is of critical importance to me that I hear news from a wide variety of sources that choose different news topics, present different views on the same events or issues, and allow me to hear from a wide variety of people. I am very concerned, about the upcoming review of the cross-ownership ban, as I view this ban as crucial to my ability to be a well-informed and active citizen. I feel strongly that the ban should be left in tact.
